

GLANMIRE HERITAGE SOCIETY - National Heritage Week 2018

RIVERSTOWN HOUSE was the seat of Dr. Jemmet Browne, Church of Ireland bishop of Cork, who rebuilt it in 1745.

One of its many attractions is the plasterwork by the Francini Brothers, famous Italian stuccadores.

The drawing room at Riverstown House.

Join the guided tour of this famous house on Wednesday 22nd August (€5 per person). Meet at Glanmire Library at 2.30pm.
