

Mary Elmes 1908 – 2002 The Irish Schindler! Yes but much more?

The story of Mary Elmes only came to light recently, when two books were published about her, and a TG4 documentary was screened. This extraordinary Cork woman saved many lives during the Spanish Civil War and World War 11, and was awarded a medal by the State of Israel in 2014 (Oskar Schindler received a similar award).

Glanmire Heritage Society is privileged to have her cousin, Mark Elmes to present a talk on her amazing story at Glanmire Community Centre on Thursday 23rd August at 2.30pm. All welcome.
